BARBARA CADDELL

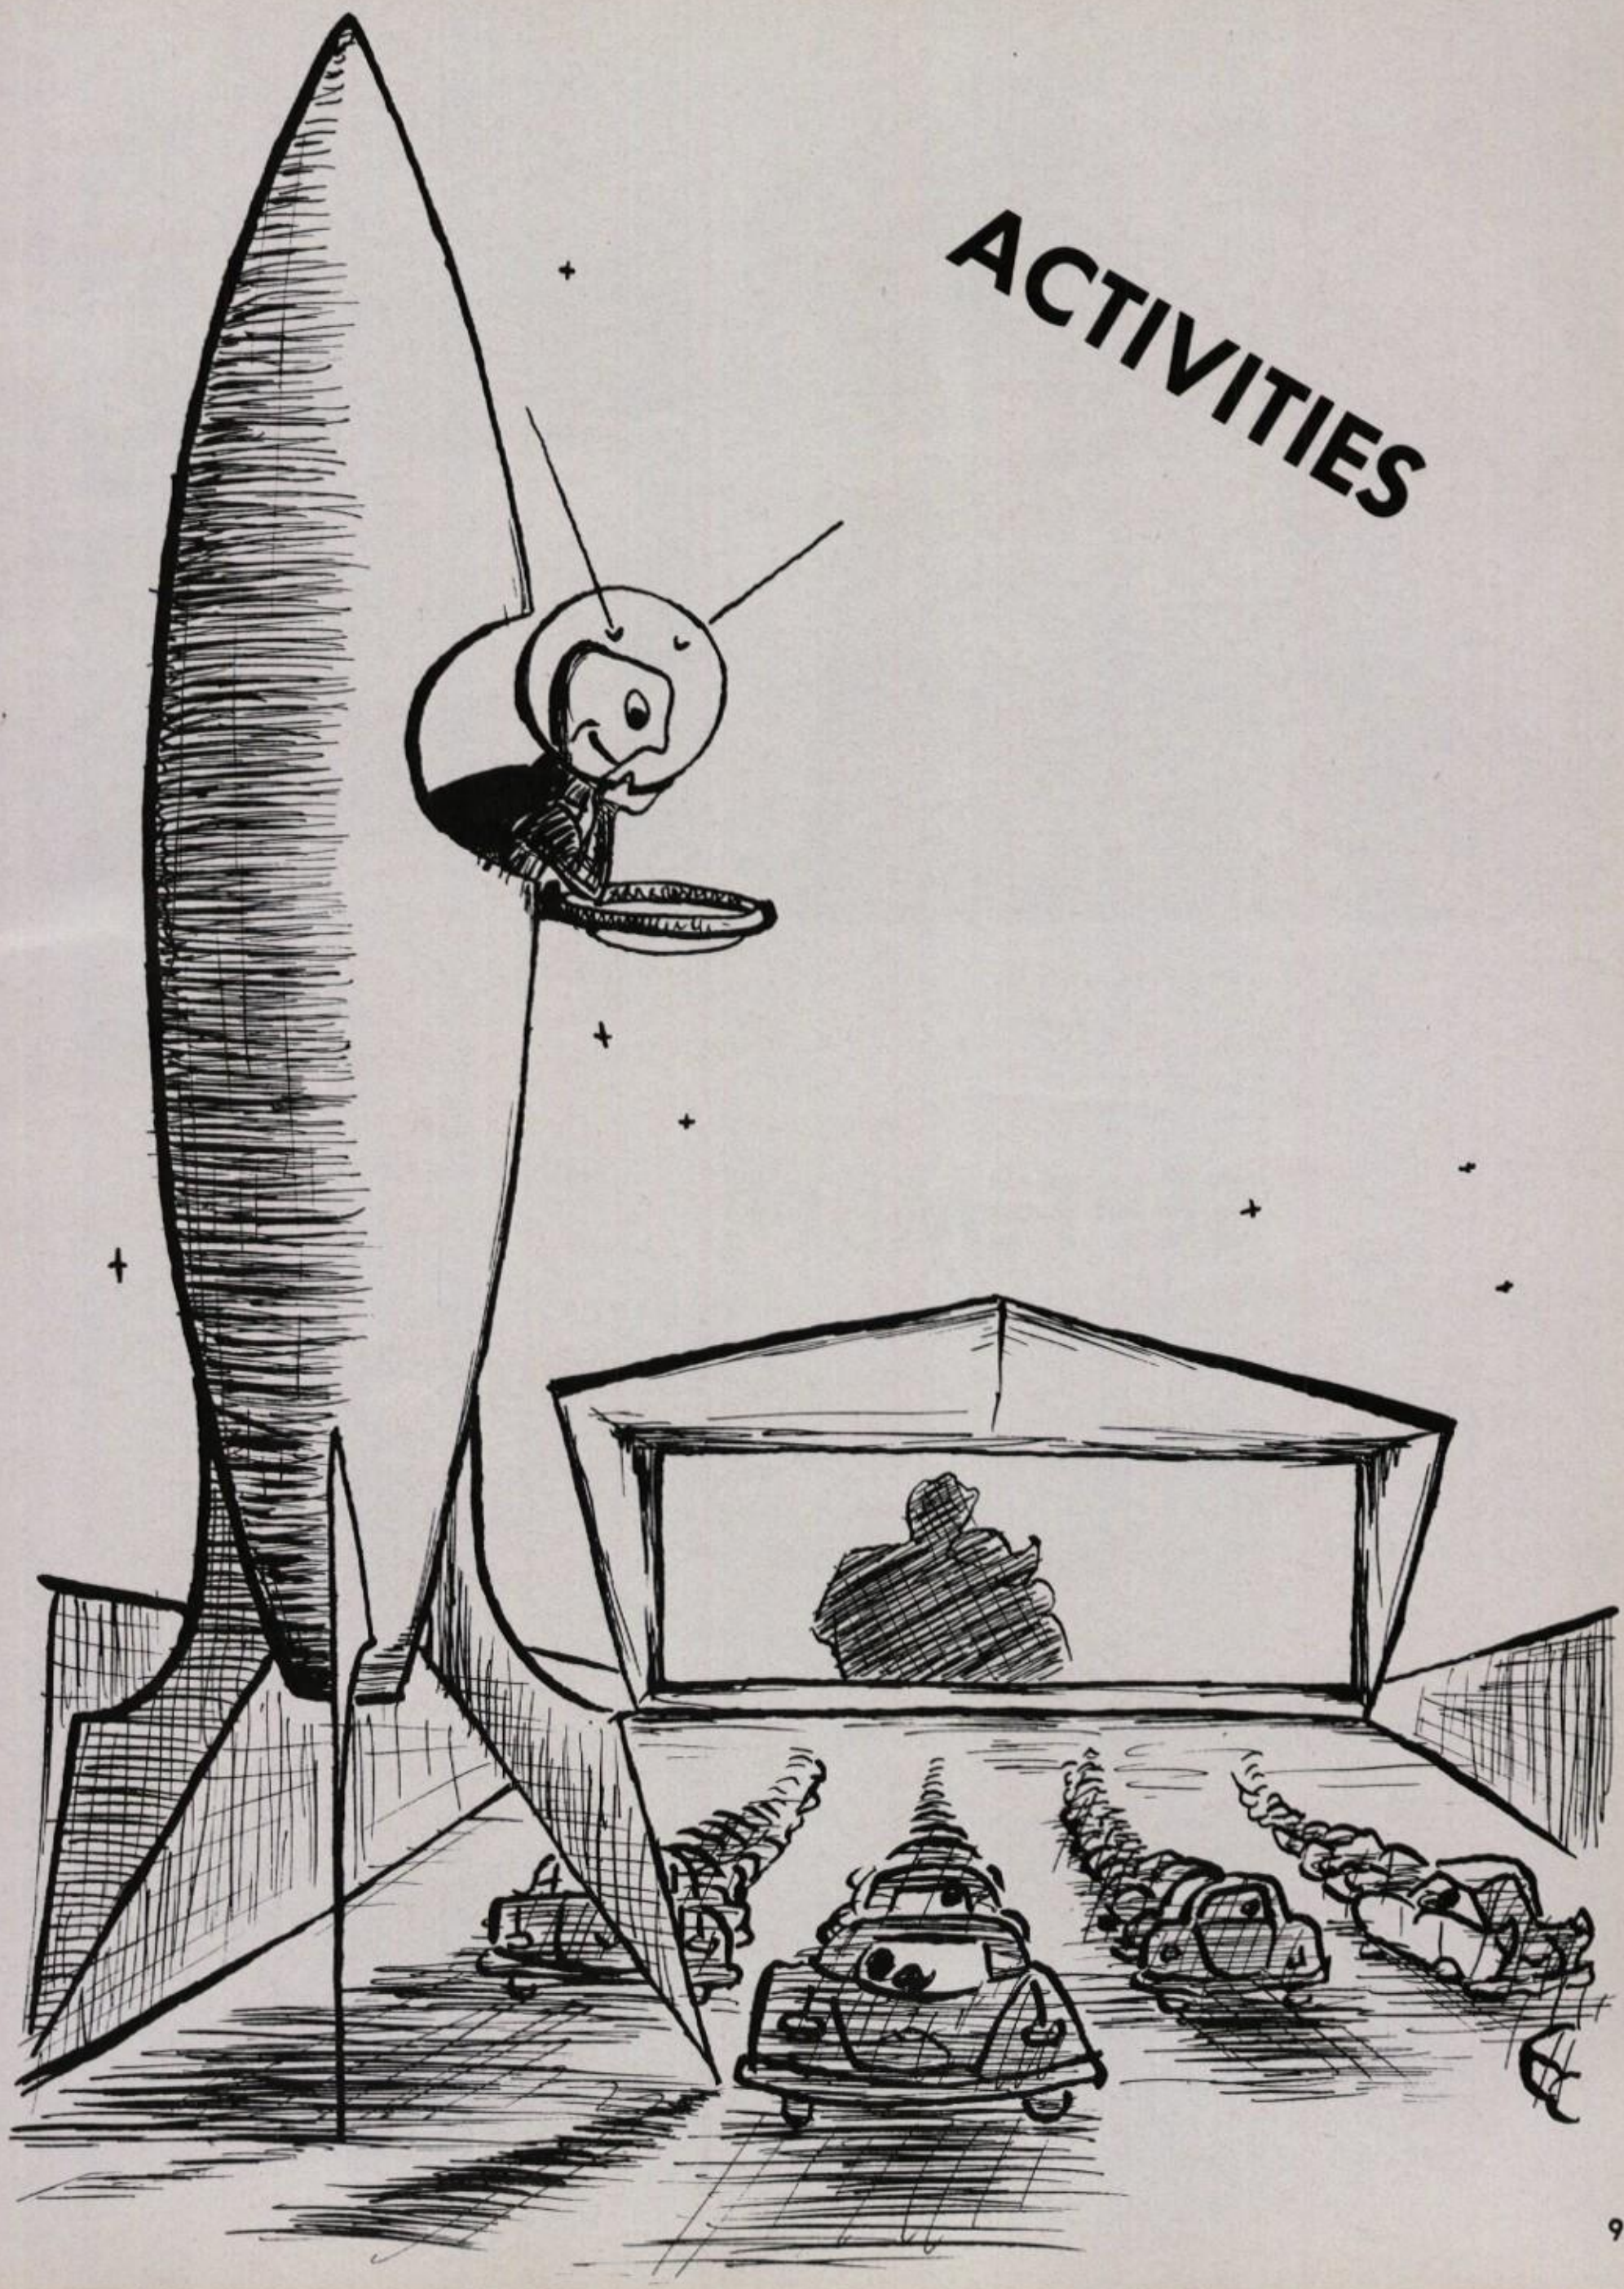
Helping lead the yells for the Lobo athletic teams during 1958-59 were these three coeds. From left they are Mary Beth Wofford, Lois McCulloch (head cheerleader), and Janelle Brown.

This trio joined the group above in directing the yells at all the contests. Left to right are Jan Musslewhite, Sandra May and Karen Nelson.

CHEERLEADERS

Whether inside or out, the girls inspired enthusiasm as the Lobos played on the gridiron or basketball court. At left, they lead yells in a rally before the Hereford grid game, while they staged an impromptu noon rally before the Breckenridge game in the other shot.

ACTIVITIES



AT LAST: Lowell Pool and Robert Viaille examine the senior ring of Jerry Wiley.

SEPTEMBER

AND THE LOBOS DID: The banner put up by the cheerleaders proved prophetic as the football team downed Monahans, 37-12.

FAIR QUEEN CONTESTANTS: Donna Welch (right) was the Levelland entry while the winner was Wynell Gilley of Whitharral, (front).

HALF TIME PREPARATION: Cora Beth Gillespie, Scott Couch and Jimmy Newberry look at diagrams for marching plans for the half time show.

LHS MAJORETTES: Virginia Starr, Jeannine Watson, Joan Lisenbee (head majorette), Opal Fay Rowe and Janice Berryhill.

BOYS DEMONSTRATE: The football boys demonstrate plays at a quarterback club meeting for people who know little about football.

OCTOBER

AFTER THE CROWNING: Queen Linda and her attendants, Sue Cloud and Donna Whitener, take their places on the throne just before the homecoming game with Andrews.

ON TO YSLETA: The Lobo team poses before leaving for Ysleta where they downed the Indians, 30-14.

HOME EC MOTHERS: Mrs. Virginia Moore, county health nurse, watches as a group of LHS home ec students practice bathing a baby as a climax to a course in baby care.

CAMPUS ROYALTY AND COURT: High School King and Queen Gary McMillan and Gaylon Cole and Junior High Royalty Joe McCulloch and Brenda Sherrod pose with their court following coronation ceremonies at the Halloween Carnival.

DO YOU?: "Preacher" Bob French "ties the knot" for a couple at the Marriage Booth. The pair seemed to enjoy the proceedings.

GETTING READY: Seniors prepare booths for events which they conducted at the Carnival.

EVERYBODY'S HUNGRY: Visitors to the carnival flock to the concession booth run by the sophomores.

NOVEMBER

NO. 3,000: Lewis Hicks, sophomore transfer from Sweetwater, caused enrollment in the Levelland School System to hit a record high with his entry in high school.

EMBLEMS OF VICTORY: Co-captains Tyrone White and Jerry Garrison stand with the victory bell and the District I-AAA trophy after the Lobos won them for the second year in succession.

DISTRICT VIC SWEETHEART: Bob Cole, president of the Levelland chapter of VIC and the area president chat with Glenda Copeland, Palo Duro after she won the title.

LIPSTICK, POWDER AND PAINT: Members of the Junior Play cast makeup before their performance of "Curtain Going Up."

TELLING HIM OFF: Mary Beth Wofford harangues John Arnold during the Junior Play.

FOOD!: Coach Doug Samford eyes his plate-ful of food provided by the F.H.A. girls at their annual Thanksgiving Dinner.

CHORES MUST BE DONE: Mr. Tipton and Coach Hinson suffer the "consequences" of the F.H.A. girl's hospitality as they dry dishes following the dinner.

UMMM, GOOD: Gary McMillan clowns with some of the food collected by the sophs for their Christmas decoration of the study hall. The onlookers seem amused.

HERE'RE OUR LISTS: Mr. Reed and Mr. Palmer tell Santa what they want for Christmas. St. Nick was part of the seniors' decoration for the holiday.

DECEMBER

BASKETBALL ROYALTY: Glennia Campbell is flanked by her attendants after the queen crowning in mid-December.

PRACTICE, PRACTICE: The Miss Levelland Contest caused the entrants many hours of practice. Beth Simmons works on her number, with an audience.

MISS LEVELLAND WINNERS: These three girls were chosen to place in the Miss Levelland Contest. Janelle Brown was named Miss Levelland while Beth Wofford placed second and Lois McCulloch placed third.

Sharron Westmoreland goes through her routine in the Miss Levelland Contest.

MISS LEVELLAND ENTRANTS: These contestants in the competition included Karen Nelson, Beth Simmons, Barbara Chamberlain, Lois McCulloch, Janelle Brown, Beth Wofford, Joan Lisenbee, Linda Leatherman, Jackie Ballow and Sharon Westmoreland.

FOOTBALL BANQUET PRINCIPALS: Coaches Hickman, Spooner, Samford, pose with Larry Faulkner, Wesley Curry, and Hal Lahar at the annual LHS football banquet.

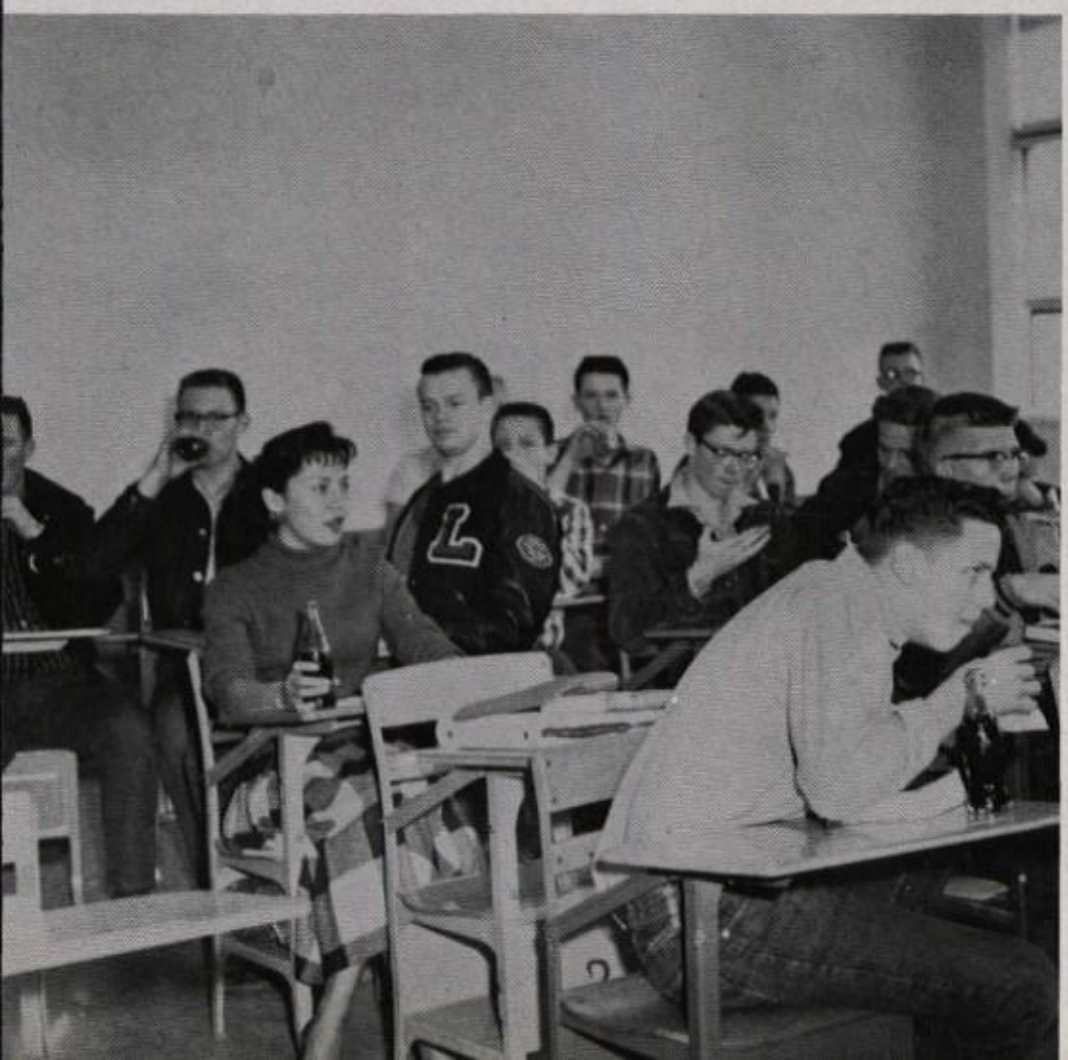
JANUARY

DISTRICT F.F.A. BANQUET: Horace Gilmore and Claud Tipton are presented honorary State Farmers' degrees by Bobby Birdsong, district secretary.

TAP KIDNAPPING: Two Levelland businessmen are served coffee by three Rainbow girls after being "kidnapped" during "Teens Against Polio" drive.

GOLDEN TRAP AWARDED: Jerry Garrison and Bill McKenzie pose with Littlefield representatives after receiving the Golden Trap, rivalry trophy for the two schools.

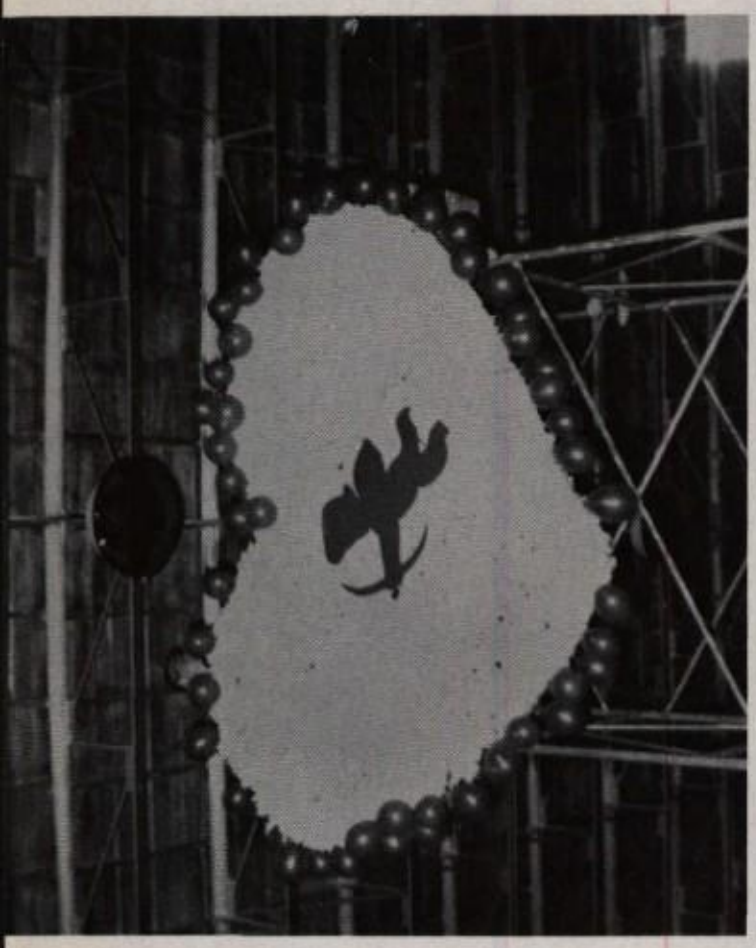
TEENS AGAINST POLIO: Bob Bowers and Brenda Upshaw were only two of the many LHS'ers who helped raise money for polio.



AN ALGEBRA CLASSROOM?: These students take time off from working Algebra problems for cake and cokes.

MR. AND MISS TAP CONTESTANTS: Shown are Mr. and Miss TAP and their court at the all-school party. Mr. and Miss TAP are Karen Nelson and Ronnie Tatham, center background.

FEBRUARY

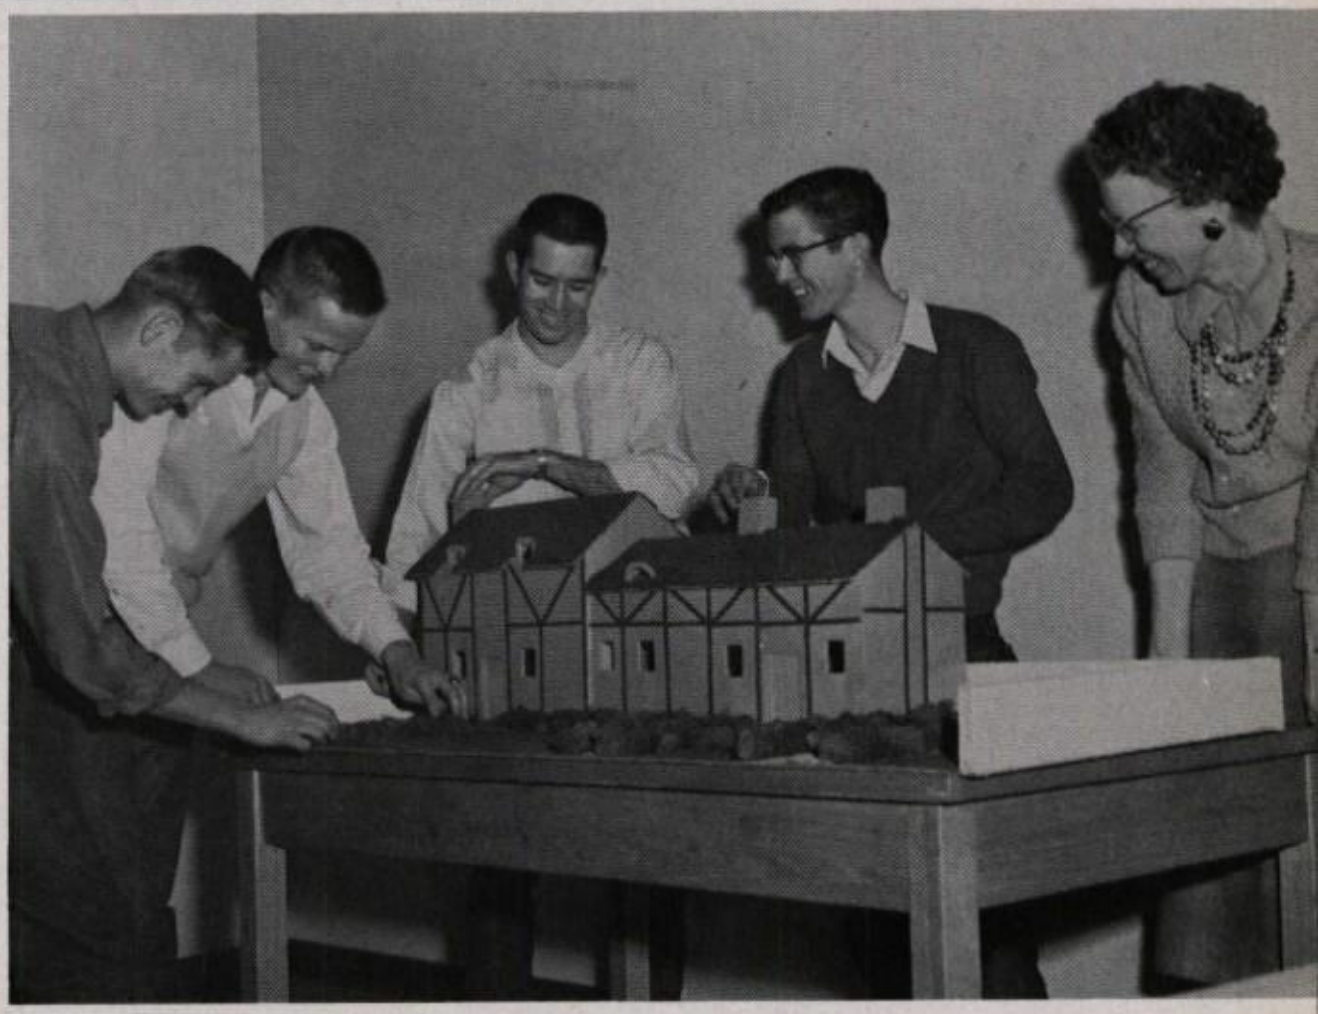


PARTY DECORATIONS: Part of the decorations for the all-school party honoring Mr. and Miss TAP.

OUR PRINCIPAL?: Shown helping decorate the gym for the party is Mr. Reed, Principal of LHS.

WILL I OR WON'T I: Karen Nelson is pondering over the question of whether she will be elected Miss TAP or not. She was!

SWEEPSTAKES WINNERS: Shown are the three sweepstakes winners in the annual English Festival. They are Mac Marcom, Margaret Noland and Gary Watt.



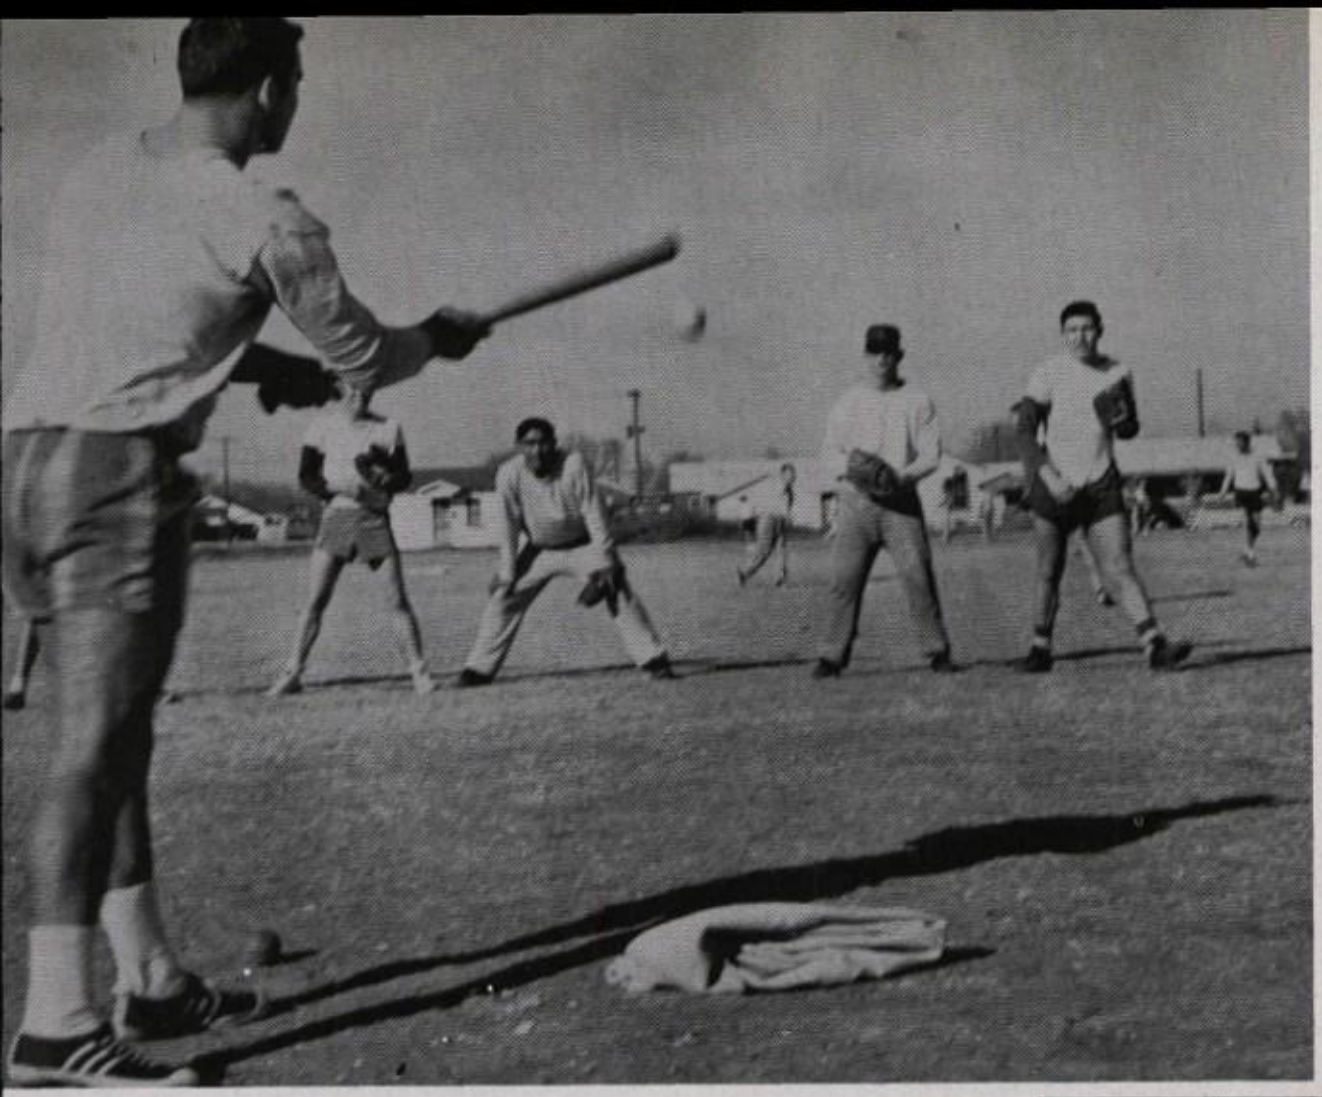
FIRST PLACE WINNERS: Doug Davis, Bill McKenzie, Charlie Hayes, and Ted Weaver apparently put in several hours of work on their first place project in the English Festival. Mrs. Winningham was their sponsor.

WHO SAYS BROTHERS AND SISTERS CAN'T WORK TOGETHER: This picture proves it. Barry, Elaine and Garey Smith are shown working on their project for the English Festival. They also placed first.

MARCH

MR. AND MISS WESTERN DAY: Sue Cloud and Prentice Fred were chosen by members of the faculty as Mr. and Miss Western Day.

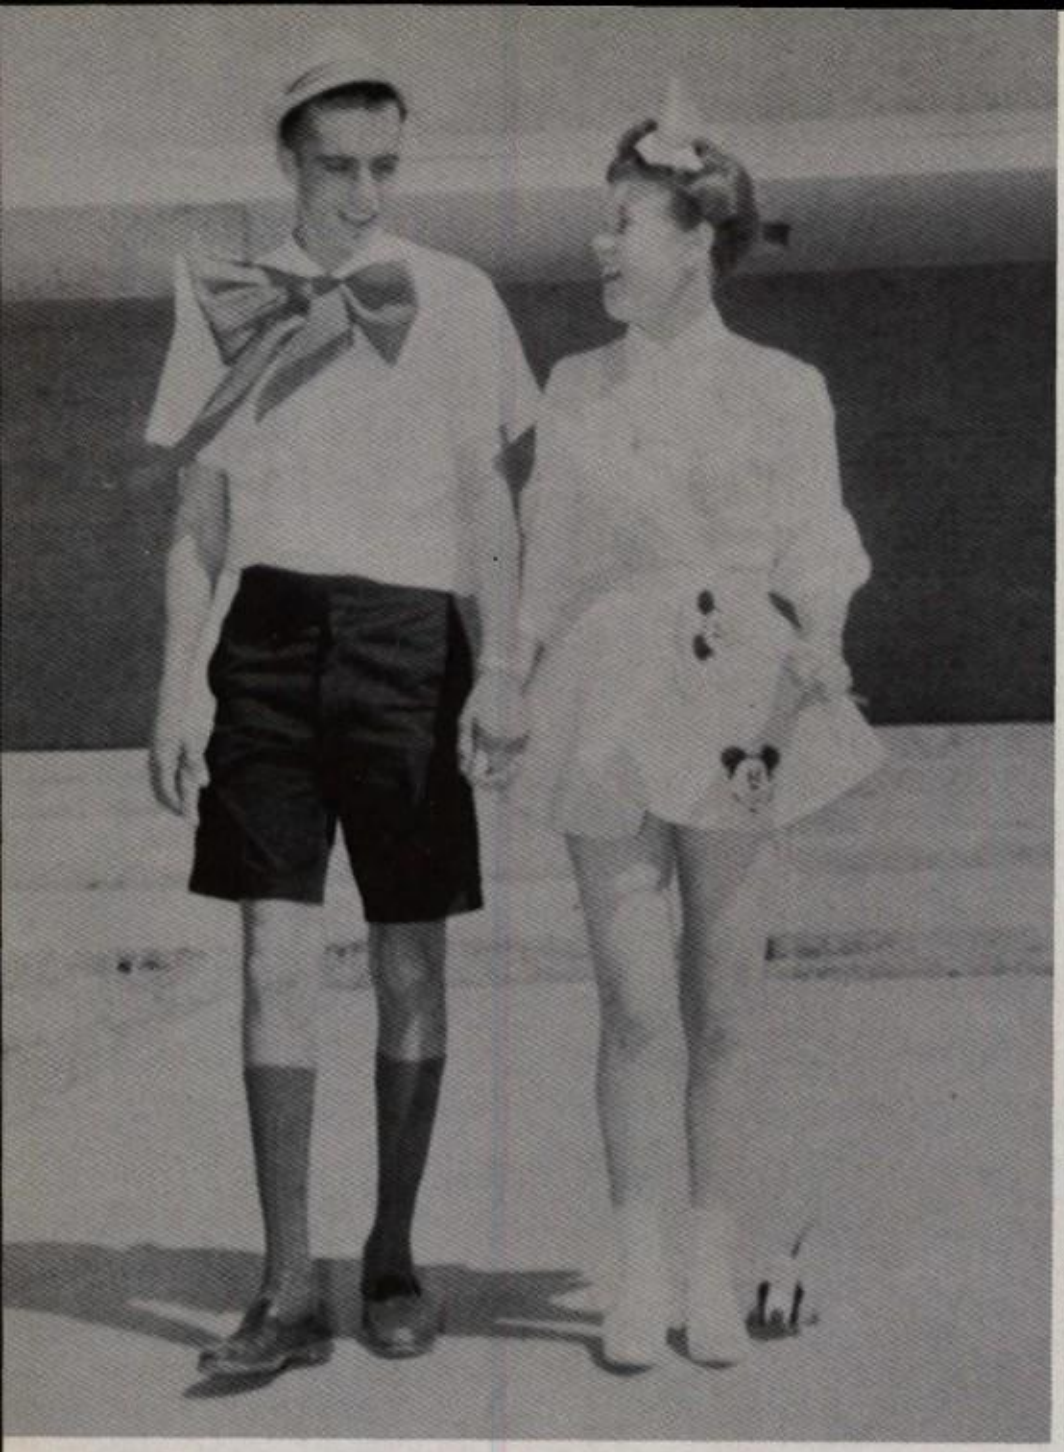
VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE DAY: Beau Boulter, Max Jennings, Howard Isaacks and Patty St. Clair listen intently as Mr. Eddie Paxton explains why the insurance business is the best profession. (at least he probably thinks so).



SPRING TRAINING: Several aspirants for the Lobo baseball team participate in a pepper game.

DRESS REVUE CONTESTANTS: Sharon Smith, Sharron Westmoreland, Frankie Spears and Neeta Taylor model the dresses they made in Homemaking class for the Hockley County Dress Revue.

COULD THIS BE A FUTURE LHS'ER?: J. B. Kempson explains the slide rule to Joe Allen, his brother, and mother during open house in Texas Education Week.



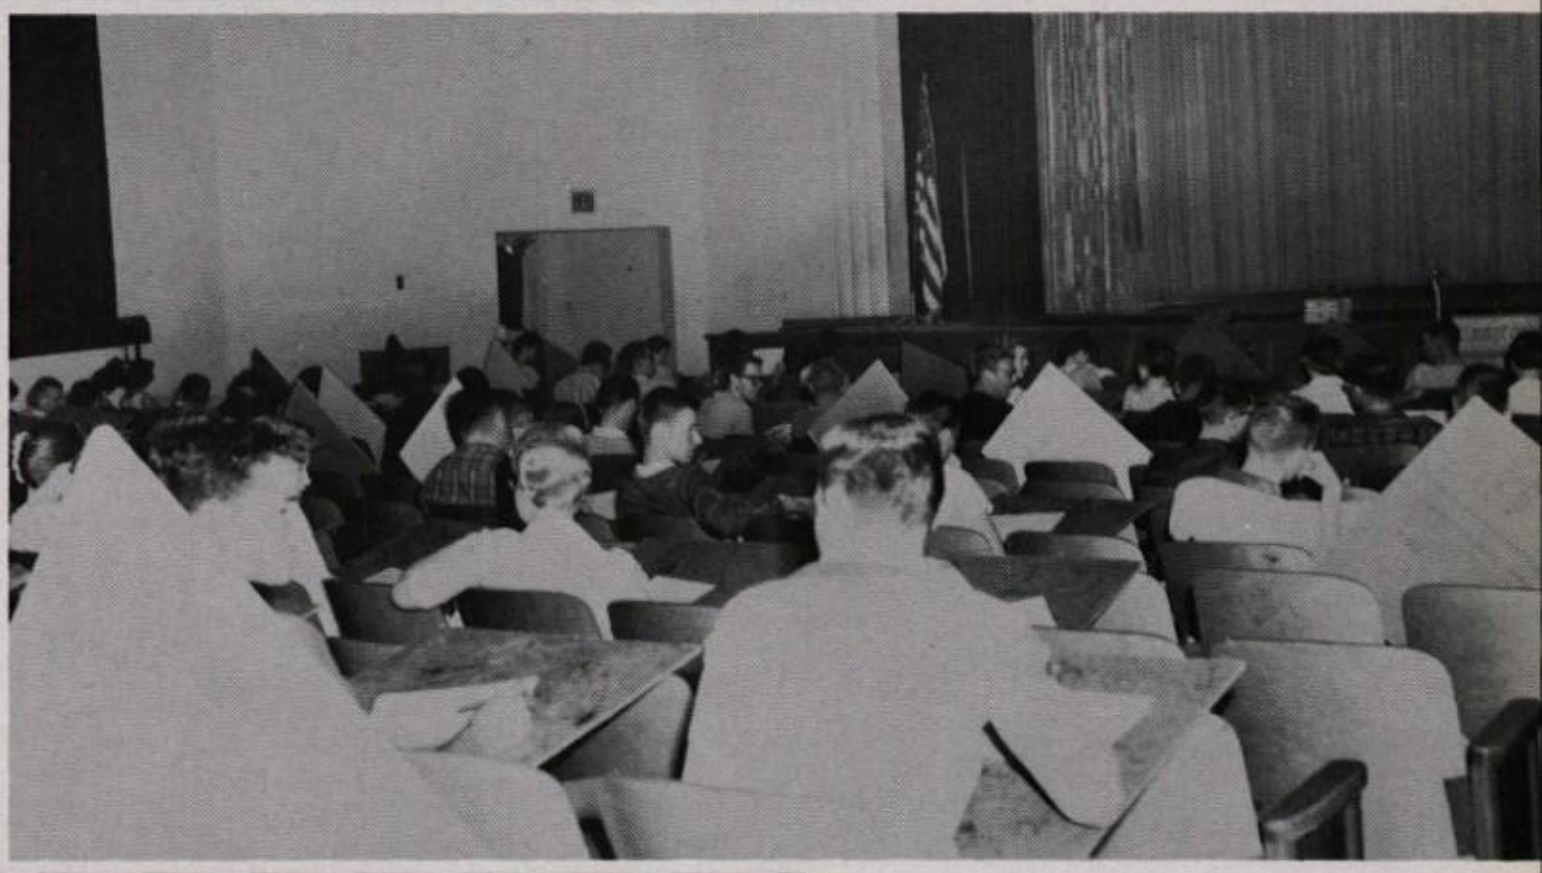
MR. AND MISS KID DAY: Jeannie Nesbitt and Roy McGuire were chosen by members of the faculty as Mr. and Miss Kid Day on Senior Kid Day. (April 1)

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS OF '59-'60: Shown are the newly elected student council officers elected for the school of '59 and '60. Jimmy Newberry was elected President, Garey Smith, Vice President and Susan Roberson, Secretary.

APRIL

THESE CAN'T BE SENIORS - OR CAN THEY? In the picture are shown some of the Seniors in their Kid Day costumes in a special assembly honoring Kid Day.

COUNCIL CAMPAIGNING:
This quartet boosted Jean Nance for Student Council secretary during the campaign assembly. They are Beth Wofford, Cora Beth Gillespie, Sue Cloud and Dawn Hamill.



JUNIOR TESTS SCENE:
Many of the juniors who took the initial test in National Merit Scholarship competition await instructions after gathering in the auditorium.

F.F.A. TALENT ENTRIES:
The four Ag boys here were the Levelland entries in the district talent contest held here. Ronald Lyon is singing, while Benny Neal (left) and Robert Sitton play guitars and Dorman Tipton beats the drums.

MAY

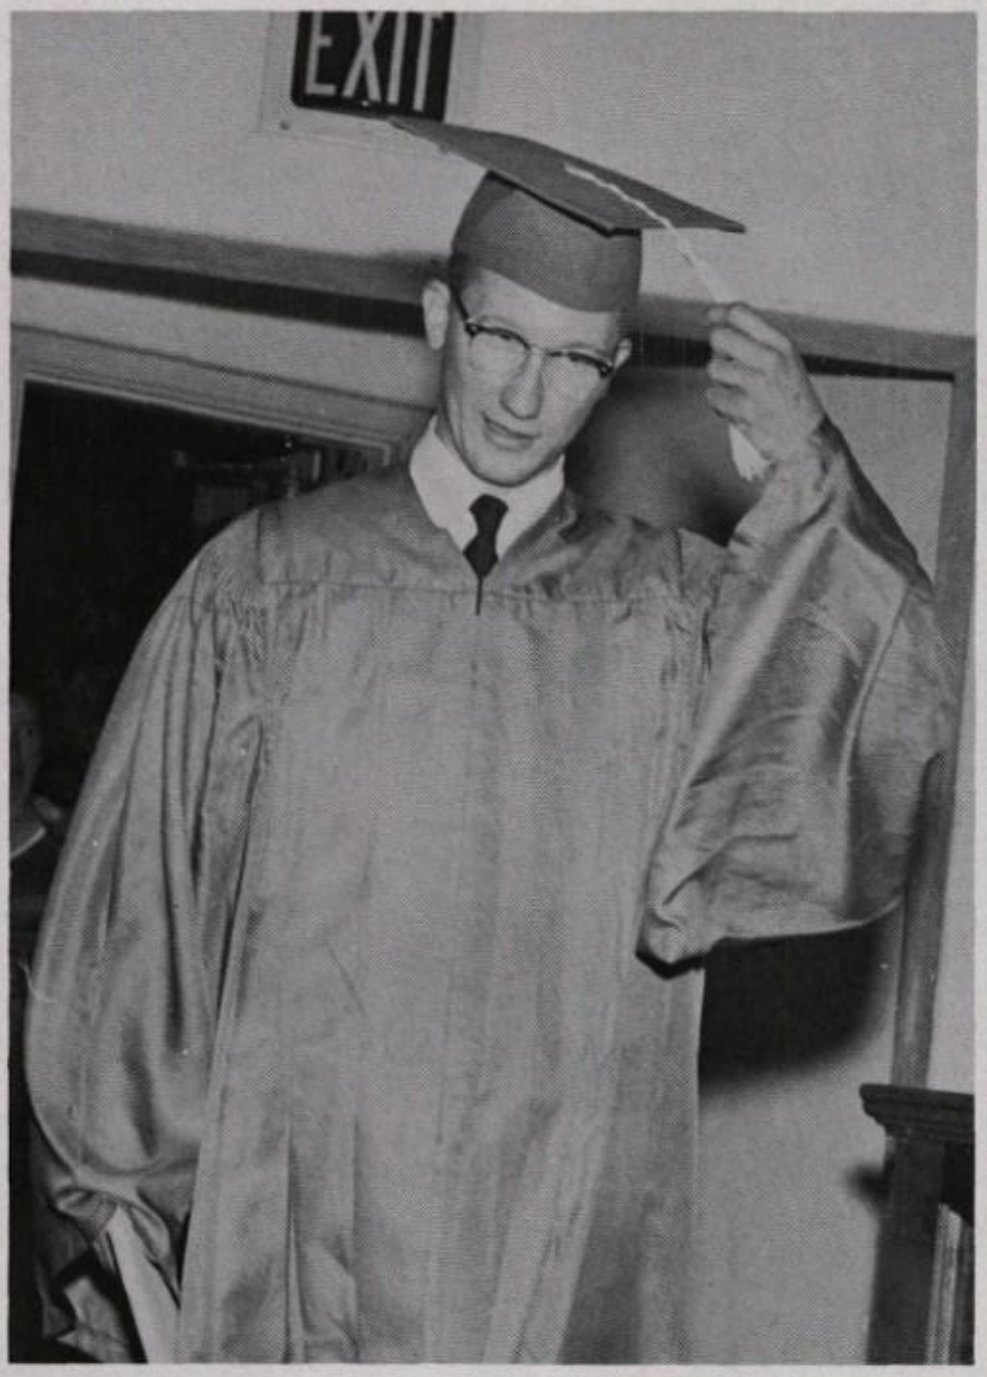
UMMM! GOOD! Members of the student council take time out for chow during a combined luncheon and meeting at the Country Club.

ROTARY AWARD WINNERS: Bill McKenzie and Brenda Upshaw were presented the annual Rotary Club awards by Burnett Roberts, District Governor, and Ted Woolery.

NOT THAT WAY, DOPE: Donna seems to be telling Karen how to fix her hair after swimming at the Senior picnic.

AHH, WHAT FUN: Members of the Senior class take it easy on the bus on the way to Lubbock and the Senior picnic.

SENIOR PROM: Members of the senior class and their dates seem to be enjoying themselves at the Senior Prom.



I DON'T BELIEVE IT: Bob Cole looks like he can't believe that he is finally out of high school.

IT'S ALMOST OVER: These Seniors seem pretty happy about the fact that their high school days are almost over.

THE END IS NIGH: Seniors prepare for the benediction after receiving their diplomas in the graduation exercises. There were 107 who graduated.

GRADUATION PROCESSIONAL: Parents and friends look on while a portion of the graduates march into the auditorium for the graduation rites.

LAST MINUTE PREPARATIONS: While Mrs. Edith Wheeler pins her corsage, June Morris talks to Janelle Grant. Carliene Glover and Brenda Cooper look on.

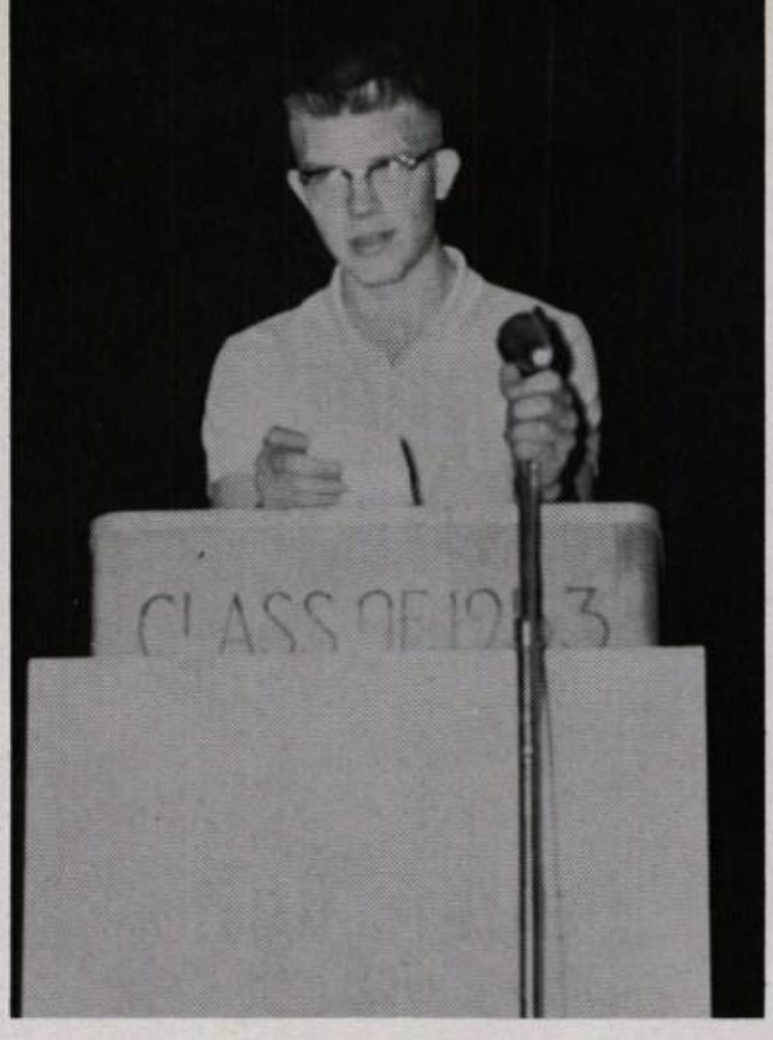
I'm really not sleepy



Furthermore, I pledge...

Ohh! What they said!

Those Littlefield gals can sing, too!

Boy, I really clobbered that one!

Folks dress on Levelland in Texas

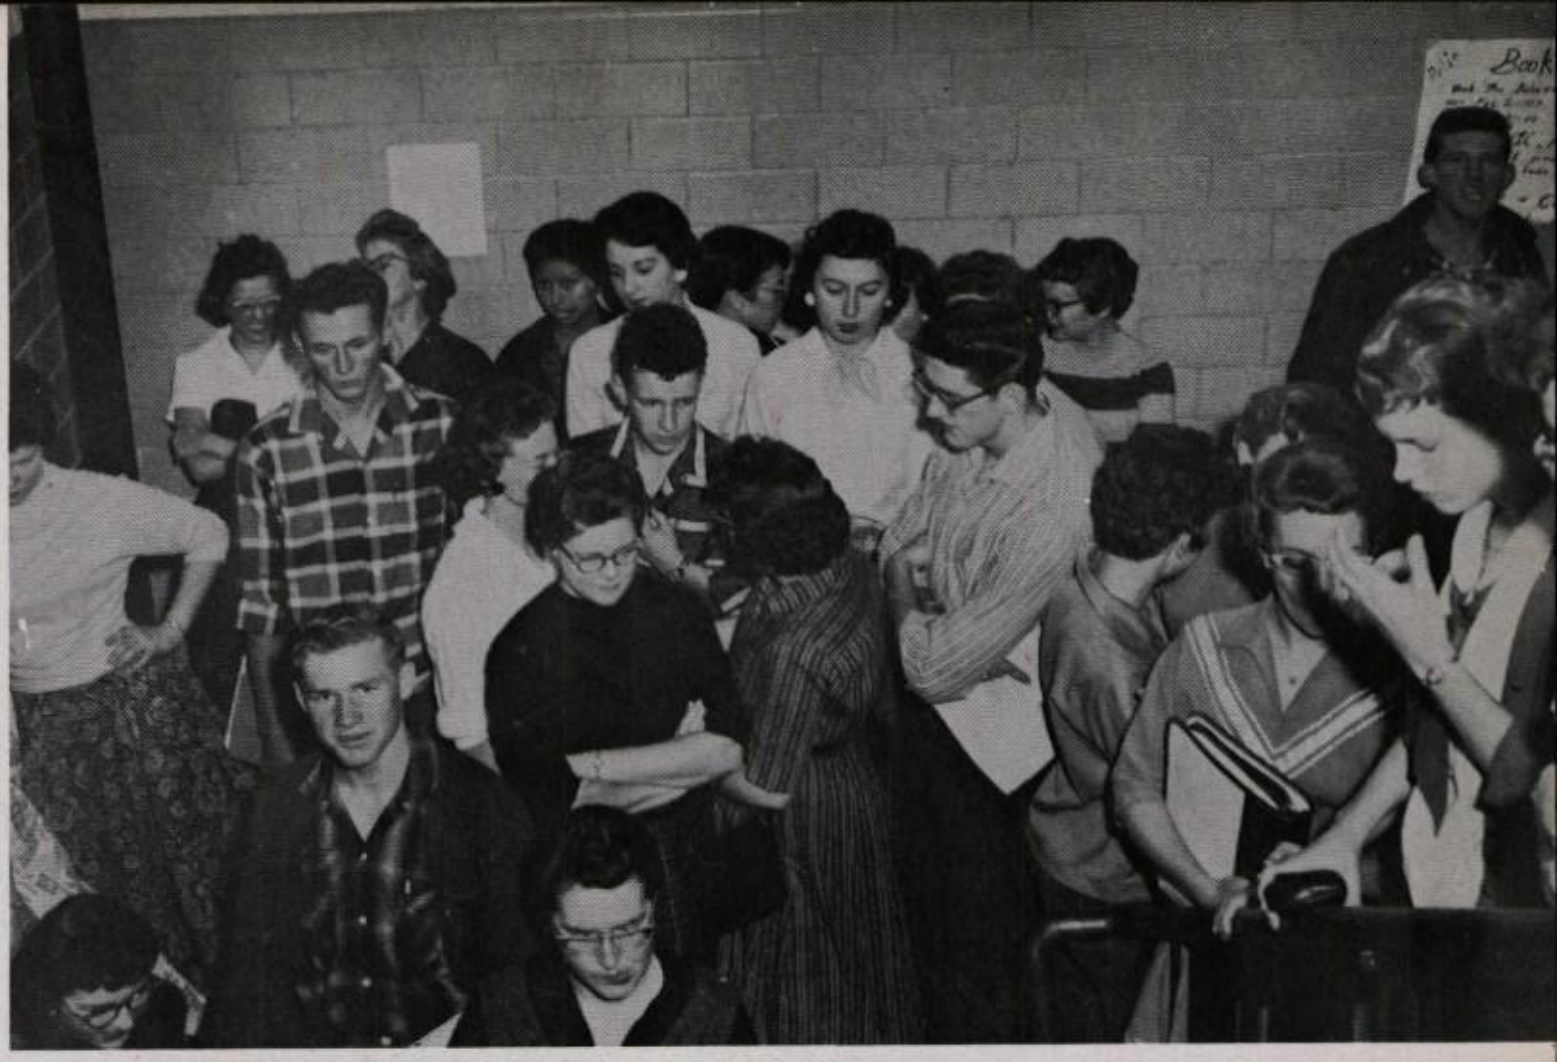
An industrious crew work on the decorations for the football banquet.

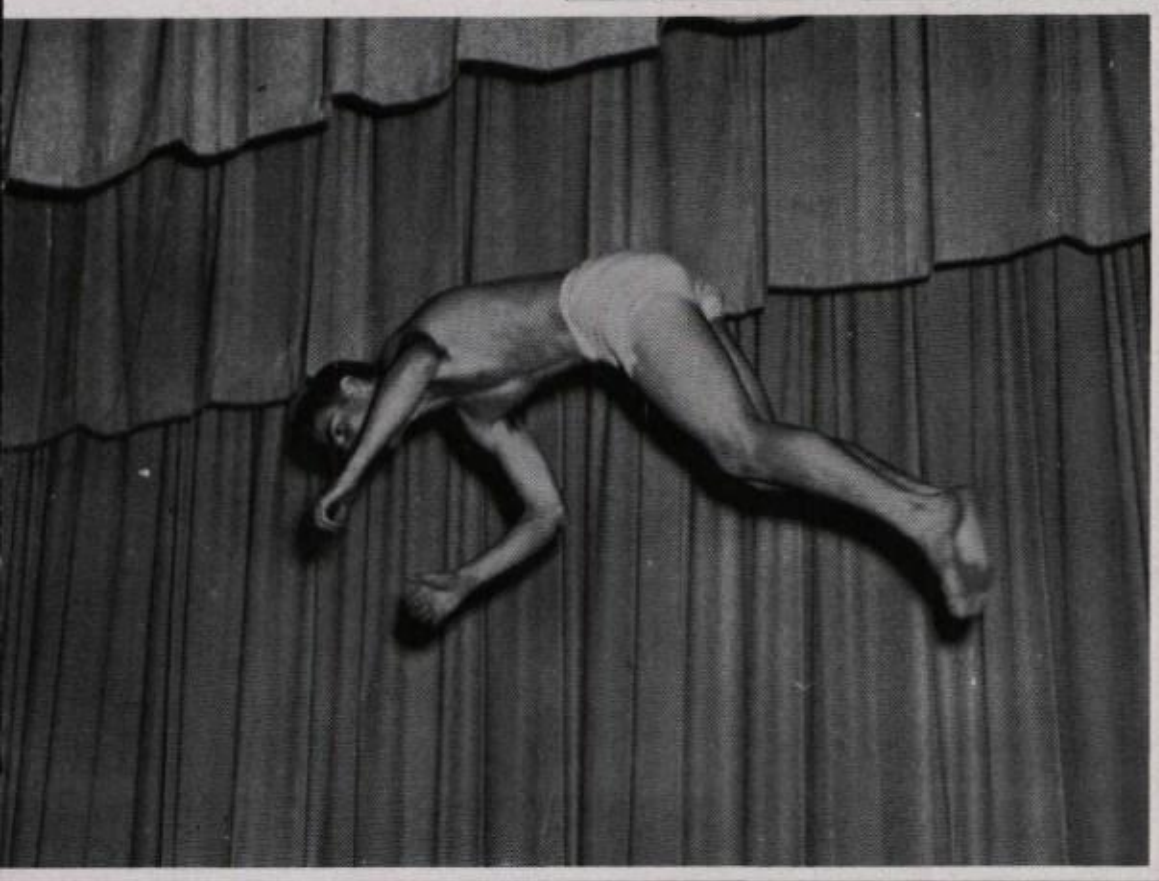
Hey, boys, you're kind of robbing the cradle, aren't you?

Sleepy, Jan?

It's about time you paid off!!

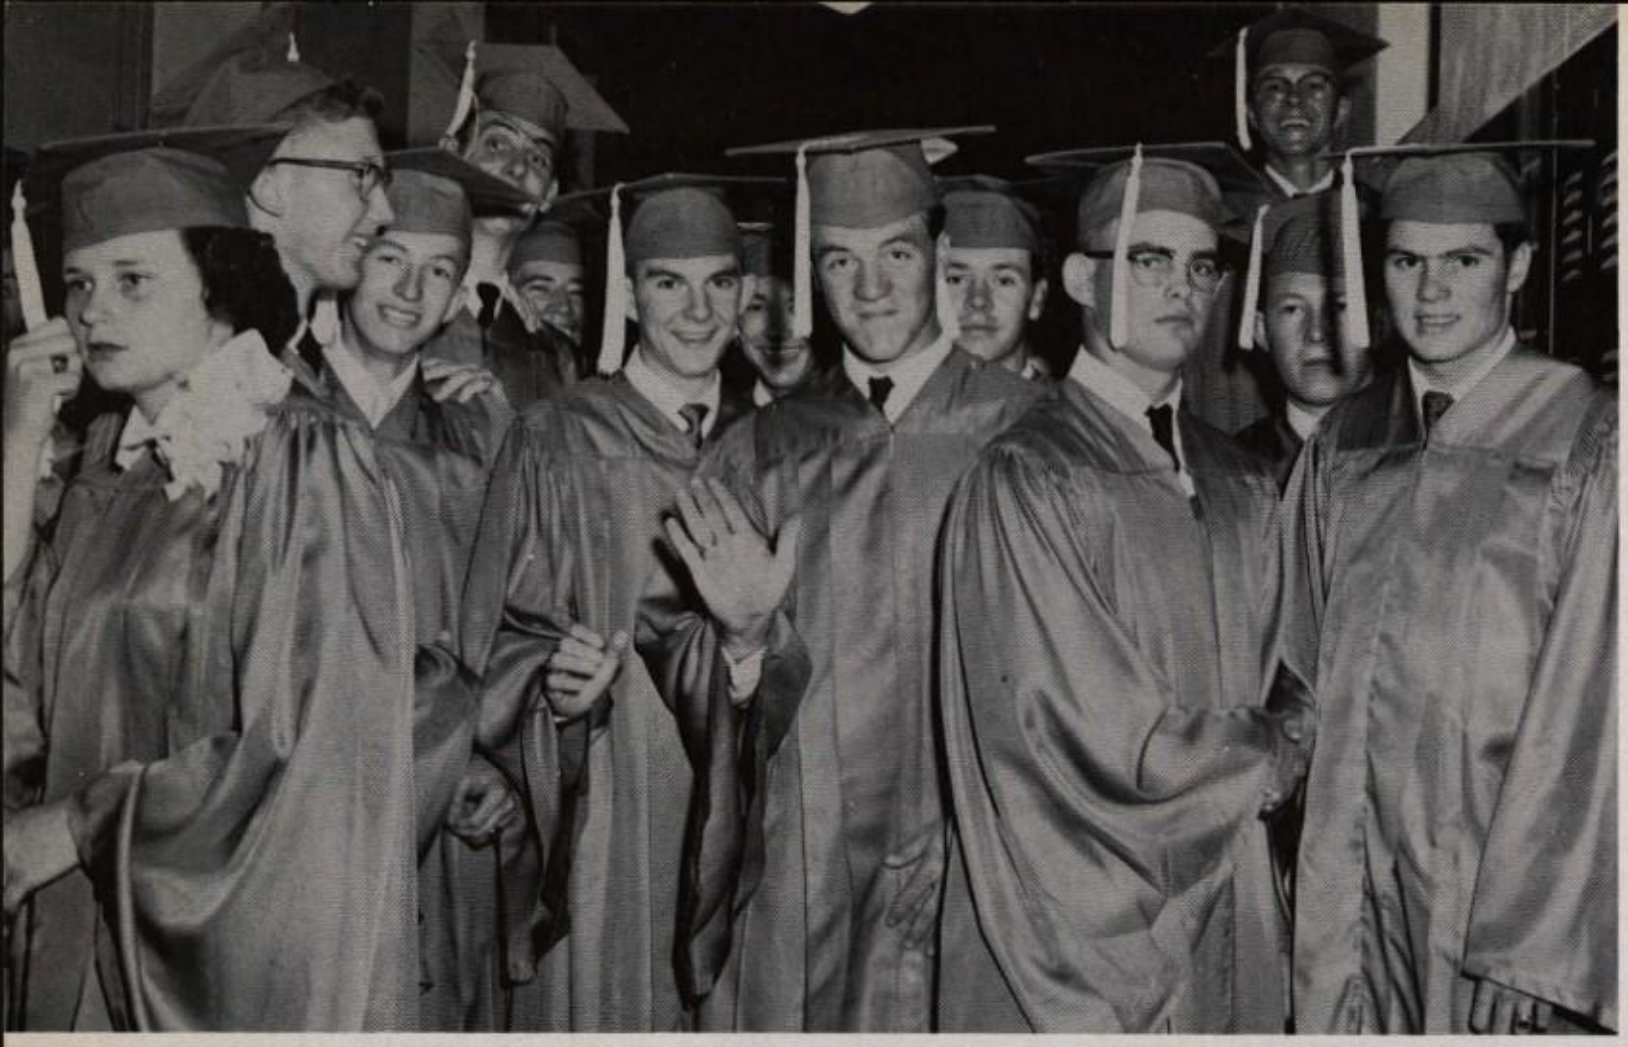
A Pep Rally?





Look out, I'm coming down!

Come on. We don't care.



What's the matter, Sandra? The boy's too much for you.

The Sparkles beat out a tune for a candidate during the election for student council officers.

Looks like Ann beat up Gary and took his jacket away.

Coach Hickman's new car is being driven onto the field by Forrest Weimhold as Healdee Bailey and Walter Reed look on. (And wish it was theirs)
